INTELLIGENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

Did you know...

- One in three Australians made a foreign exchange transaction in the past two years.
- Almost 600,000 Australians exchanged individual sums over $20,000 in the same period.
- Only 16% of people making a foreign exchange transaction sought professional assistance when moving their currency – the rest relied on advice from friends, the internet or newspapers.

However...

- A staggering 82% of people agreed that professional advice would have made their foreign exchange transactions easier and potentially have saved them money.
- 58% of people believed they would receive benefit from professional advice on the timing of their foreign exchange transaction.
- 51% of people would have liked to secure a rate even though they did not have all of their funds available immediately.
- 49% of people would have appreciated a service where they could make regular payments at a fixed exchange rate, without the hassle of exchange rate volatility.

Results were compiled by Galaxy Research, during an omnibus survey conducted on behalf of HiFX Australia Pty Ltd in June 2007.
